Tailor Made Clothing WHILE YOU WAIT

Or rather while you don't wait. Instead of making a pincushion of your back and a blackboard of your front, instead of cutting and sewing and fussing and ripping, and keeping you standing and waiting; instead of all this, you can have the finest tailor-made suit in five minutes' time. We're prejudiced—don't take our word for it, but ask the first well dressed man you meet, and he will tell you that the Alfred Benjamin & Co.'s name is inside his jacket.

From ocean to ocean Alfred Benjamin clothing is known as the best. Come in and you'll see why it's different. No higher in cost than the ordinary ready-made garments.

Everything in suits—everything in overcoats, everything in dress suits and tuxedos—that a man can desire. All ready tailored, ready to wear.

DANGEROUS TO BE ON STREET

Japanese Who Was Convicted of Reckless Driving Held Up as a Warning.

Judge De Bolt paid his respects to careless hack drivers yesterday in no gentle terms. Maibara, a Jap hackman who had been found guilty of heedless and reckless driving by a jury was sentenced to be fined $50 and costs by Judge De Bolt, who took occasion to express his opinion of the growing violation of the laws for the regulation of hackmen.

"It seems to me," said the court, "that there is no more dangerous mode of conveyance in Honolulu than by hack. There appears to be no other mode of transportation which is attended by so many dangers. It is also a matter of public notoriety that a great many people have been seriously injured by the carelessness of hackmen, and while I have not heard that anyone has been killed, the fact remains that continued violations of the law have been the cause of so many people being hurt. The only object of a fine is to punish the criminal and deter others from like offenses. The imposition of fines has not, it seems, served as a lesson to prevent furious, heedless and reckless driving. The present case is an aggravated one. While no one was injured, the law does not require that the personal safety of any one should have been endangered, though from the manner in which this defendant was driving, it being in fact a race, some one might have been seriously injured. The condition of the horse when it was stopped, sweating and covered with foam, shows that the driver was not as careful as he should have been."

"It shall be the judgment of the court that the defendant in this case pay a fine of $50 and also the costs of this prosecution."

"There is altogether too much of this reckless and heedless driving, and a stop must be put to it in some way. It is a serious matter to the public; it is not safe for any one on foot or otherwise to go out on the highways when such things are permitted. The courts must step in and see that the laws are obeyed in this respect."

Attorney General Douthitt, in asking that a heavy penalty be imposed, also called attention to the growing violation of the laws of the road. He said that the hackmen, particularly Japanese, seemed to have an entire disregard for the rights of pedestrians or others, and cited an instance at Kapiolani park, of which he was a witness. He said that the reckless driving was positively dangerous to women and children, and a fine should be imposed which would be a lesson to all hackmen.

Waimea Notes.

The evening of Sept. 20th was the time set for the reception of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, who have recently returned from Iowa, for which place Mr. Baldwin started to find his bride. The Makaweli hall was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and greens of all varieties, together with flags of all descriptions. The string band from Waimea played upon the stage behind a cluster of tropical vegetation. Misses Danford, Harwood and Elston deserve much credit for their work and artistic decorations of the evening.

Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard gave a most enjoyable tea on Tuesday afternoon, September 24, in honor of Mrs. and Miss Faye, Lady Herron, just returned from Europe, and Mrs. Miller, who was to leave Elele. There were thirty-six ladies present out of forty invitations issued. A delightful afternoon was spent by all present.

It is with much regret that we learn of Mr. Arendt's, of Hofgaard & Co., leaving for the coast. He has held the position of manager of said firm for a brief period but has in that time proven himself to be a man of much business ability. The citizens of Waimea were loath to see him leave, but business called him and he had to answer the call.—The Garden Isle.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It always cures and cures quickly. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents, sell it.

MISERY IN CLOTHES

THE EXPERIENCE OF A DRUGGIST
IN SAM'S VALLEY.

He Tells a Reporter the Simple
Way in Which He Overcame the Difficulty.

"I have had a great many experiences," said Mr. Albert L. Gall, a druggist of Sam's Valley, Oregon, "but the recollection of one of them outshines them all."

"What was that," ventured a reporter.

"Well, when I was a little fellow, about 12 or 13 years old, I began to be afflicted with an eruption of the skin, something like diminutive boils. I think the cause was an hereditary impurity of the blood. I was treated by several of the best physicians, but they did not help me any. I kept growing worse and the eruptions became so numerous that it was a misery to wear clothes. After a while my kidneys became affected."

"Your skin looks clear now," said the reporter.

"Yes, the trouble was all cured years ago. How? By Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had heard of what these pills had accomplished in diseases of the blood and decided to try them. Relief came as soon as could be expected and I continued taking them until all trace of the disease had vanished. That was seven years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cures cases like this because they go to the root of the disease. Other remedies act on the symptoms—these marvelous vegetable pills remove the cause of the trouble. Not only have they cured hundreds of cases similar to Mr. Gall's but they have proven themselves to be an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood and weakened nerves—two fruitful causes of nearly all the ills to which human kind is heir. They are an unfailing specific for locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold in boxes at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
